

This class brought to you by...

Each student is required to complete two commercials of 1 minute each.

Students get to choose what they present about in their commercials. The two commercials must not be related in information and must be restricted to exactly one minute each. They will be presented at different times in the class.

The student is required to submit a written copy of each commercial.

Commercials can be about anything including:

books, movies, television shows, cars, motorbikes, books, shopping, clothing, fashion, computers, video games, school, studying, social issues, politics, books, food, hobbies, knitting, sports, hockey, backpacking, travel, geography, books, history, mathematics, quantum physics, art, theatre, you, your grandparents, music, DJ Jazzy Jeff and the Fresh Prince, etc.

It just needs to be one minute in length exactly.

Date of My Presentation:

ASSESSMENT:

Communication /10

- Speaking voice, organization of thoughts, no stumbling, etc.

Application /10

- Using your time to speak persuasively, with enthusiasm, etc.

Thinking & Inquiry /10

- Present information in your own words, use different stylistic devices, etc.